PRIZE DESIGNS

OF

Croydon Red Cross Stamps

The 6d. Stamp is the original design of Hugh Macintosh, Esq., the governing idea being the Red Cross, "The sign of Mercy" therefore hangs out prominently in the centre of a landscape, with a ruined town and the glare of the battlefield in the background indicating the tragedy of War. Along the road, beneath the hanging sign, the troops go out and the Red Cross cars come in; whilst over the sign the dove of Peace flies as if finding there its only resting place. The two figures forming the side borders are emblematical of the sacred character of the work and the chivalrous devotion which inspires it.

In The 3d. Stamps the motif is to symbolise the beneficence of the Society, hence an ancient Egyptian symbol for Beneficence. The wide outstretching wings each side of the solar disc (here encircling the Red Cross symbol) signifies the untiring activity of the sun (Red Cross). The incorporation of the Borough Arms give the design the necessary local character.

The original was prepared by W. A. De L. Broadley, Esq.

The 1d. Stamp is the original design of Master Frank Edwards, aged 13 years. Combining our National Flag and Croydon's Red Cross Ambulance it signifies our local effort to assist in keeping the flag flying, and should prove popular and readily saleable.

These Stamps are on sale by 900 Traders in the Borough during Red Cross Week. EVERYONE is earnestly requested to have one put on their parcel or account with each purchase and to procure a supply and use same for sealing all letters, during the week.

The Children will like to keep them as memetnos.
